

Programme for Autumn 2010

Wednesday - 15 September 2010

"Archaeology, History and Conservation"

James Simpson, architect, and Tom Addyman, archaeologist, will talk about the need, when working in a historic context, for interaction between architects, historians and archaeologists. Good decisions are based on sound understanding. Examples will be drawn from experience of working in Haddington and Gifford"

Wednesday - 20 October 2010

The Frank Tindall Lecture

"Stone – Building the Heart of Scotland" - with special reference to Haddington and district. Talk by Ingal Maxwell who, prior to retiring in 2008, was Director of Technical Conservation, Research and Education with Historic Scotland. He was one of the contributors to the recent publication, Building Scotland, a Celebration of Scotland's Traditional Building Materials (2010).

Please note: Out Talks start at 7.30 p.m. and will be held in The Trinity Centre, Church Street, Haddington. All are welcome.